ST. LOUIS STREET RAILWAY

An Order Asked for That Would Revoke Their Charters.

ON THE GROUND OF MONOPOLY

As it is Claimed That the Companies are Capitalized in Excess of the Amount Granted by Law—Other
Happenings of the Week.

Goebel Law the Issue.

John W. Yerkes, of Danville, was nominated for governor by the Republican convention held in Louisville on the 17th. A platform was adopted declaring the issue of the election to be the Goebel election law. The speakers very unsparsingly denounced the present Democratic state administration, and the Democratic legislature, thus indicating a purpose to welcome into the Republican party all Democrats who are opposed to the Goebel election law. There was no nomination to be made by this convention except for governor to fill a vacancy.

Crow on the 17th filed in the supreme court quo warranto proceedings against the St. Louis Transit Co., the United Railways Co. and the National Railway Co., asking that their charters be revoked, on the ground that they have not conformed to their charters and that a street railway monopoly in St. Louis has been created. The petition alleges further that the companies have violated the state law in capitalizing for more than is allowed under the state law. The suit is against all the companies embraced in the St. Louis Transit Co.'s system.

Americans Mobbed in Japan.

Oriental advisers by the steamer Empress of India say that the American mission at Nagoya has been attacked by a Japanese mob and the missionaries so severely beaten that they were left for dead, although they subsequently recovered. The prime cause of the trouble was the interference of the missionaries in the trafficking in young girls, who it is said, have been openly sold. A mob surrounded the mission station and would have destroyed all the buildings but for the somewhat tardy arrival of the native police.

CHINA WAR NEWS.

The semi-official Military Woe-hen-blatt asserts, from alleged authentic figures, that the number of allied troops now in China is 43,000. Of these, however, 20,000 Russians are located in Liao Tung peninsula and Kwang Tung province and 1,000 Germans with 16 field guns, 12 heavy guns and 6 machine guns, at Kiao Chou. Now on the way from Germany, France and England there are about 15,000 men. Arrangements have been made for the departure of 57,000 with 144 guns, and altogether there will be, from present arrangements, in China by September 10,000 Germans, 12,000 English, 65,000 French, 50,000 Russians, 21,000 Japanese, 7,000 Americans, 2,000 Italians and 170 Austrians, together with 311 guns and 36 machine guns. Gen. Von Boguslawsky, a high military authority, said it was quite possible that this force of 115,000 men would prove insufficient to bring China down.

A Chinese merchant who has just arrived from Peking, gives horrible details of the massacre. He says he saw European women hauled into the streets by shrieking Boxers, who stripped them and hacked them to pieces. Their dismembered limbs were tossed to the crowd and carried off with howls of triumph. Some were already dead, having been shot by foreign civilians. He says he saw Chinese soldiers carrying the bodies of white children aloft on their spears, while their companions shot at the bodies. He gives other details too horrible to be particularized. It seems that the Boxers leaders had organized a plan including the offering of rewards and rich loot for the annihilation of Europeans throughout China and that Prince Tuan's generals have been emphasizing the opportunity the soldiers have of seizing the bodies of white women.

President McKinley has received what purports to be a direct appeal from the Chinese imperial government to use his good offices to extricate that government from the difficult and dangerous position in which it has been placed as a result of the Boxer uprising and the ensuing hostile attitude of the great powers. Although the exact text of the appeal made by the emperor of China to France, as outlined in the cable dispatches of the 21st, has not been made known at Washington, it is believed that the address to the President is similar in terms to that communication. In our case the communication was made through Minister Wu to the state department. Thus far a final answer has not been returned.

If the news of a Chinese invasion of Siberia proves true it will, of course, immensely complicate the situation from the international point of view. As stated in the Associated Press St. Petersburg dispatch of July 13, the Chinese had already peremptorily ordered all Russians to quit Manchuria, but no one imagined they would be audacious enough to break out of their own country and attack Russian territory. Such an attack, if it has been made, of course, constitutes in itself a declaration of war, rendering formal notification needless.

To add to the gloom occasioned by the extremely serious import of news showing the daily developing strength of the anti-foreign movement in the south of China comes a report from Shanghai on the 20th that 60 missionaries and 100 native converts have been massacred by "Boxers" at Tai Yuan. Tai Yuan is a fortified and populous city in the province of Shan See on the Fuen Ho, an affluent of the Hoang Ho, 250 miles southwest of Peking.

An official telegram from Shanghai, dated July 18, states that, according to the governor of Shan-Tung, the foreign ministers and their families at Peking are safe and sound, but that the danger is still very great. The viceroy, according to this dispatch, informed the consular corps that he had telegraphed to Peking urging the protection of the foreign legations.

The quartermaster's department at Washington has made a requisition for something over $14,000 for apparatus to supply the troops of the Chinese expedition pure drinking water. TRANSVAAL WAR ITEMS.

Gen. De Wet has again succeeded in cutting Lord Roberts' communications, both by railway and telegraph, and has captured 100 of the Highlanders. The story of the federal commander's bold raid comes in the form of a telegram from Gen. Forester-Walker, dated at Cape Town, Sunday, July 22, forwarding a dispatch from Gen. Knox as follows: Have followed commando since July 16. Hard, sharp fighting at Palmietfontein, July 19. Prevented from pursuing larger by darkness. Eight dead Boers found. Our casualties five killed and 76 wounded. Beach Vaalkrantz on the 22d. Enemy doubled back through Paardekraal in darkness. Send supplies for 3,000 men and horses, also any news of the enemy's movements. I hear the commando consists of 2,000 men and four guns, and is accompanied by President Steyn and both the De Wets.

On the 16th the Boers made a determined attack on the left of Pole-Carew's position and along the left flank, commanded by Hutton. The posts held by the Irish Fusiliers and Canadian mounted infantry under Lieut. Col. Alderson were most gallantly defended. The Boers made repeated attempts to assault the positions, coming in close range and calling to the Fusiliers to surrender. The Boers suffered severely. They had 15 killed and 50 wounded, and four were taken prisoners. The British casualties were seven killed, including the Canadian lieutenants, Borden and Birch, 30 wounded and 21 missing.

The Boers made a determined attack on the 21st to destroy a post at the Rail Head, 13 miles east of Heidelberg, which they attacked with three guns and a pom-pom and surrounded. They were, however, beaten off after a sharp engagement, before reinforcements summoned from Heidelberg had arrived.

It is evident from the dispatch that the imperial government has been acting in good faith, and on July 18 was still using its best efforts to protect the legations. We must do everything we can to second their efforts.
